4 UNIQUE CARIBE FRANÇAIS

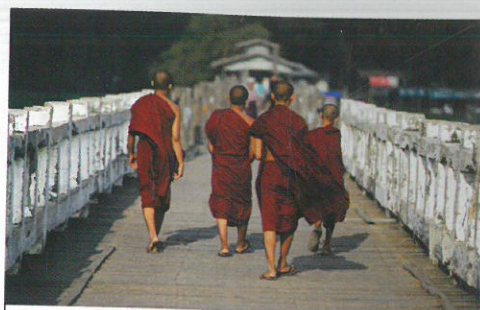

Exploring the islands of Martinique and Guadeloupe gives you a real sense of the Franco-Caribbean heritage the French Antilles have to offer. Both islands are overseas regions of France, yet the scenery is distinctly that of the Caribbean combined with Gallic flair and flavours. We'll get off the beaten track and discover the exotic flora and fauna, colourful wildlife, historic forts, and white sand beaches lapped by azure sea.

Two weeks, half board from £3,190, including return flights and local guides.
